

Dr Christopher Caton

Introduction

Chris Caton has been Chief Economist at BT Funds Management since 1991, and an Executive Vice President since 1993.

He was also Chairman of the Indicative Planning Council, which advises the Government on matters relating to the housing industry.

Previously he worked in Treasury, the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, and for an economic consulting firm in the United States.

Chris was educated at the University of Adelaide and the University of Pennsylvania.

Please welcome.... Chris Caton